By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the third day of November, in the forty-third year of Our reign, We did charge and command all Our loving subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any passes for ships and vessels belonging to Our subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the way of the cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary (except such passes as had been granted to ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote voyages where they could not be timely furnished with new passes), that they should, before the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and three, return the same and furnish themselves with passes of a new form, under the hands and seals of the Commissioners for executing the office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several ships and vessels, in such manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: and whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest reason to believe that many of Our passes may, either by accident or undue means have fallen into the hands of foreigners, who by the clandestine use of such passes may carry on their trade; We, taking the premises into Our Royal consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy stop to all such indirect practices, which do not only tend to the prejudice of Our trading subjects, but may occasion a misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, that the passes of the present form shall continue in force for all vessels sailing from the ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland during the present year, in order to give sufficient time to Our trade to be furnished with passes of the new form, and that after the expiration of that time, no passes but those of the new form shall be considered as valid, except in the case of vessels returning from foreign voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with new passes; and We do hereby further declare, that in the case of vessels returning from foreign voyages, passes of the present form shall continue in force during the terms hereinafter mentioned, that is to say,

For vessels returning from the ports to the northward of the Streights of Gibraltar, or from the ports within the Mediterranean, to the thirty-first of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

For vessels returning from the West Indies, North America, and the western coasts of Africa, to the thirtieth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

For vessels returning from the East Indies and all other distant parts, to the thirtieth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one.

And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects, who are, or shall be possessed of any such passes, that they do, on or before the expiration of the periods herein before mentioned respectively, return the same into the office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the out ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our foreign plantations or dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with passes of the new form, under the hands and seals of Our Commissioners for executing the office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several ships and vessels, according to the Treaties subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the regulations made by Our Royal predecessor King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council on the fourteenth day of June in the year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same remains unaltered, by the regulations made by Us by Our Orders in Council, bearing date respectively on the twenty-eight day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, on the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and the third day of November one thousand eight hundred and two, or Our Order in Council of this day's date, and according to the further regulations then there made, and our instructions given to Our said Commissioners for executing the office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland touching the same: and whereas many ships and vessels belonging to Our loving subjects continue several years trading from port to port in the Mediterranean without returning home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their passes to be exchanged: We do hereby, for the ease of Our trading subjects, publish and declare, Our pleasure, that upon the application of any owner of any ship or vessel, or other substantial merchant, to the office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and oath made by him of the property of such ship or vessel, and that three fourths of the company are our subjects, according to an Act made in the twelfth year of the reign of Our Royal predecessor King Charles the Second (intituled "An Act for encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation)," or such other proportion as may be authorised by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a bond for the return of such pass at the end of the period therein specified: it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a new pass for such ship or vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said owner or merchant shall desire, with directions to such Consul, that upon application to him from the master of the ship, for which the pass is made out, and surrendering up his old pass, and entering into bond for the return of such new pass, he shall deliver out the said new pass to such master, and transmit the old one with the bond to the office of the Admiralty of Great Britain.

And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any abuses that may be attempted by foreigners, relating to the new passes to be issued as aforesaid, we do hereby further declare Our Royal will and pleasure, that the new form of passes, marked A, as recommended to Us by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in their memorial, bearing date the eighth day of September last, and approved by Us by Our Order in Council, of this day's date, shall be issued from and after the first day of January next, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and as soon after in His Majesty's colonies, as the same may be received at each colony respectively; and that passes issued in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of the above-mentioned form, shall be in force during the voyage for which the said passes shall be taken out, and no longer, and shall be returned, at the termination of such voyage, to the Commissioners of our Customs, or to their Chief Officer at one of the outports, provided such voyage shall terminate in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor in any of the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Man; and in case such voyage shall terminate in any of our possessions abroad, then that such passes shall be delivered up to the Governor or other person having chief authority there; but if such voyage shall terminate at any place out of our dominions, then such pass shall be delivered up to our Consul or his Deputy at such place, or who may be nearest thereto; and that passes to be issued in our colonies or possessions abroad shall, in like manner, be in force during the voyage or voyages for which they shall be taken out respectively, and no longer, and shall be returned at the termination of such voyage or voyages respectively, in the manner hereinbefore directed, according to the port or place in which such voyage or voyages shall terminate respectively; and that in all cases whatever of passes to be issued, such surety, by way of bond, shall be given to secure the due return of the passes, and to guard against any fraudulent or improper use of them, as hath been usual, or as our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, may deem necessary to require according to the circumstances of the case.

And whereas it has been recommended to Us, by our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, that for the more effectual prevention of abuses, and for the diminution of expence it may be convenient, in certain cases, that passes to be granted for the purposes aforesaid should be united with the ship's certificate of registry, Our will and pleasure is, that if any person shall be desirous of having the Mediterranean pass annexed to the certificate of registry of his ship, such pass so annexed may be issued agreeably to the form B, recommended to Us by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in their memorial as aforesaid; and that such pass shall not be separated from such certificate of registry, but shall be returned at the same time when such certificate of registry shall be delivered up to be cancelled, and as often as any new certificate of registry shall be granted, an annexed pass shall also be granted under the same conditions, if the party shall be desirous thereof.

But whereas the laws for the registry of British shipping do not apply to ships belonging to Gibralt-tar and Malta, and whereas it is expedient that passes granted to the ships of the said places should be accompanied by some document proving that they belong to His Majesty's subjects in His Majesty's said possessions respectively, it is Our further will and pleasure, that the Governors or Deputy-Governors of the said possessions respectively, who shall be authorised to issue passes, shall issue them only in the form marked C, as recommended to us by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in their memorial as aforesaid, and that the said Governors or Deputy Governors shall issue them only to such ships as shall be certified (in such manner as We shall be pleased by any Order or Orders in Council to direct), to belong to Our subjects, and to the possessions under their respective Governments, except that when any ship having a pass issued in the United Kingdom, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, the time of which pass shall have expired, and which by these regulations ought to be returned, or where the owner or master of a ship having a British certificate of registry shall be desirous of obtaining a Mediterranean pass; the Governors or Deputy Governors as aforesaid may grant for such ship a pass of the form aforesaid marked C. to be in force to the end of the ships then voyage, and no longer, and to be returned to be cancelled at the end of such voyage as hereinbefore directed in other cases respectively; and the said Governors or Deputy Governors shall sign their names in the margin of all passes issued by them respectively as specified in the said form; and in all cases the Governors or Deputy Governors issuing such passes shall take a bond (as above directed), for the delivery up of such pass on the first ensuing arrival of such ship in any port of the United Kingdom, or of a British possession, of which the Governor or Deputy Governor may be authorised to issue passes.

It is Our further will and pleasure, that for the more convenient issue of such passes, Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, shall be authorised to furnish to the Commissioners of Our Customs in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, and to the Governors of Our Colonies, and of Gibraltar and Malta, passes of the necessary forms signed and executed by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, in blank as to the names of the ship, which passes the Commissioners of Our Customs as aforesaid or their Officers; and the said Governors shall be authorised to fill up and issue on the receipt of the bond required to be taken for the same.

And it is Our further will and pleasure, that it shall be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and they are hereby empowered to lodge Mediterranean passes of the same form with the new passes for ships and vessels belonging to Gibraltar and Malta, in the hands of Our Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands, and to empower our said Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands to issue and deliver out such passes to any of the inhabitants of the said Islands, to be applied to ships actually belonging to the said Islands, and none other, provided the person or persons applying for the same do comply with and conform to the several rules and regulations now in use, or that may be required to be observed by Our subjects, or that may be directed to be observed by the said inhabitants of the Ionian Islands by Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being.

And We do hereby order, that the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain and Ireland do cause to be carried into execution such parts of the said Order of Council, of the fourteenth day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning passes as relate to themselves, and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remains now in force, and of Our Orders aforesaid made in Council on the twenty-eighth day of August one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, on the thirty-first day of December one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and the third day of November one thousand eight hundred and two, or Our Order in Council of this day's date, that they do direct their Officers in the several parts of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to demand of the masters of all merchant ships, so soon as they shall return into port from a foreign voyage, all passes granted as aforesaid which shall be in their possession to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older date than the periods herein before severally and respectively mentioned for the return of the passes of the present form, then such passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain. And in case the master of any such ship or vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such passes according to the true intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the name of every such master, and of the ship or vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to the end that directions may be given for putting the bond entered into on the granting any such pass, in suit. And all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our islands, colonies, or plantations, Consuls residing in foreign parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving subjects whom it may concern, are hereby expressly required and commanded to yield due obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the orders, instructions, regulations, and directions before mentioned, on pain of Our high displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the sixtieth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of November 1819.

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Orders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-eighth May and the twelfth July last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons, whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies; or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores; and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, have been presented by His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.:

The humble, dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, and other Inhabitants of the same Borough.

When provoked by the tumultuary and dangerous meetings of malicious, or misguided men, so large a portion of the subjects of our beloved and venerable Sovereign are zealously expressing their unshaken attachment to their Constitutional Laws, we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and other loyal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Harwich, intreat permission of your Royal Highness, to be graciously reckoned among those, who are most sensibly grateful for the blessing of that excellent Government they enjoy, and who are determined with their lives and fortunes to make every loyal exertion necessary for its lasting preservation and support.

Placed, as we are, at the extremity of a peaceable maritime and agricultural County, we learn only by public report the existence of those meetings, that seditious spirits have organized to disturb the public peace.

Happily, as yet, we have had in this loyal and tranquil town, no itinerant orators, moving revolutionary resolutions, and operating upon poverty and distress to produce discontent and disaffection to the State.

We have however, though not immediately exposed to the contagion, perceived its pernicious effects upon other less fortunate parts of this Kingdom, with indignation and abhorrence. Nor have we failed to observe the intimate sympathy between those mischievous men that incessantly labour to disturb our mild and paternal Government, and those who impiously attempt to destroy our Christian Faith; and are forcibly warned against all the deceitful delusions of the seditious Reformer, who we behold him counselling and abetting the cause of the Infidel.

Whatever important questions may arise between the legal protectors of the public peace, and its dangerous disturbers, we can with the most perfect confidence leave to the just decision of our established tribunals; and we as confidently trust, that under the guidance and protection of the Almighty Disposer of all events, who has so triumphantly conducted us through all the dangers and difficulties of a most perilous war, our Constitutional Parliament, now so wisely assembled by your Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, at this eventful period, will adopt such prompt and salutary measures, as, with the assent of your Royal Highness,—whilst they preserve to a free and loyal people, the sacred right of petition lawfully exercised,—will effectually prevent all those menacing meetings, which, under the mask of pretended petitions, give publicity to the most revolutionary principles, and strike at the root of all that affords life and vigour to the wealth, virtue, and happiness of our native land.

Anthony J. Cox, Mayor.

Harwich, Nov. 23, 1819.

[Presented by the Right Hon. the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Right Hon. Ch. B. Bathurst.]

To His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Nobility, Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, contemplating with deep anxiety the situation of the Country, feel it our duty thus humbly to tender to your Royal Highness, together with every sentiment of respectful affection towards his Majesty and your Royal Highness, the assurance of our constant and zealous devotion to the Constitution in Church and State, as by law happily established within these Realms. Superfluous as such an assurance might be justly deemed, under ordinary circumstances, we trust it will not appear unbecoming at a period marked by efforts openly employed with an activity, a perseverance and a boldness unknown but in the worst times of our history; to mislead to the ruin of themselves and their Country, a great portion of his Majesty's Subjects, and under the specious pretence of reform, and the restoration of the constitution, to inculcate principles of the most dangerous innovation, tending only to its inevitable subversion, while the treasonable intention of insuring by force the effect and success of these principles, is hardly disguised.—Unworthy indeed should we be of the name of Englishmen, unworthy the eminent blessings we enjoy, if, at such a moment, we did not avow and proclaim at every hazard our determination to defend and preserve the sacred Institutions from which they are all derived.

The public distress first artfully turned to excite popular passion, since kept up and exasperated in assemblages of the people, frequent and numerous almost beyond example, the character of those assemblies, the resolutions issuing from them, the circumstances peculiarly distinguishing them and the doctrines promulgated and insisted upon, the audacious abuse of the liberty of the press, flagitiously perverted to root from the minds of Englishmen every sentiment of respect for the laws, of reverence for religion, of duty to the Sovereign, and of allegiance to the State, can leave to no unprejudiced man a doubt of the ultimate purpose to which the machinations of disaffection are systematically directed, or any other duty to a loyal subject than that of devoting all his powers to render it abortive.

Confiding in the sound reason and uncorrupted hearts of a great majority of our countrymen, we entertain no apprehensions of the result of a contest (come when it may), between the friends and enemies of the Constitution; at the same time we are forced to regret the encouragement and advantage the disaffected cannot fail to derive from the proceedings of some who, we are willing to believe, have far other intentions, which, by their obvious tendency to augment the existing irritation on the public feeling, incalculably aggravate the danger and difficulty of the Country.

While we lament, with a sincerity equal to those who have been loudest in their declamations on the subject, the lives lost at Manchester, and yield to none in the estimation in which we hold as one of the best safeguards of our liberties, the invaluable and undoubted right of petition, we confidently leave it to the regular Tribunals, which we believe fully competent to decide on the merits of transactions which have recently occurred, and to fix on those to whom it justly belongs, the heavy responsibility of having insulted the laws, and invaded the real rights of the people. In doing this, however, we cannot overlook or abstain from reprobating the attempts to misrepresent and exaggerate the circumstances that took place, evidently designed to anticipate the judgment of the case, and to preclude the Magistracy from every chance of justice, by exhibiting them as objects of popular indignation, which, in proportion as they are successful, must have the effect of suppressing in other instances all zeal in the discharge of the magisterial functions, from which the Country has derived so much advantage, and to which it is indebted for so great a portion of its internal peace and safety.

We beg humbly to express our satisfaction at the determination your Royal Highness has announced of speedily resorting to the advice of your Parliament. On your Royal Highness's wisdom, assisted by that advice, and the proceedings emanating therefrom, we place under Providence our firmest hope, and to them we cheerfully commit ourselves and our interests; not doubting that the measures adopted will be the means of guarding and long preserving to us against all the attacks of impiety and treason, the laws, the religion and the estimable blessings of our free and happy Constitution.

[Presented by the Earl of Lonsdale, K. G.]

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, feel it our peculiar duty, at this period, to offer to your Royal Highness every assurance of loyalty to the Crown, and attachment to the Constitution of this Kingdom.

The Government established in our Country has been, under Providence, the source of so much happiness and prosperity, that we cannot but regard with the deepest abhorrence any attempt to weaken or subvert it.

Reflecting with gratitude that we have been preserved, and that we have been the honoured instruments of rescuing others from the anarchy and despotism which so long desolated a large portion of the world, we cannot silently behold the ungrateful and mischievous restlessness of those who would take advantage of the circumstances attendant upon returning peace, to undermine that goodly fabric which weathered the tempest, and still excites the admiration of surrounding states.

We feel for the poor, and for others whom the increase of population and the fluctuations of commerce have involved in difficulties and distress; but we rely on the wisdom and paternal care of the Legislature, for the adoption and judicious application of every practicable remedy.

The free expression of opinion, whether through the press or otherwise, is the privilege of a Briton: and far be it from us to desire that it should be restrained, so long as it keeps within the bounds of religion and good order. But we wish not to forget, that if our advantages be great, so is our responsibility. In this matter we have not only the deepest personal interest, but we are intrusted with a sacred deposit to preserve for those who come after us. We would guard as a precious jewel that liberty which has never shone with a purer lustre than in our favoured country: we deprecate the licentiousness which is its counterfeit. True freedom is in peril when blasphemy and tumult are defying the laws of God and man; when the necessary decorum of our courts of justice is pertinaciously violated; when opportunities are eagerly seized or cunningly contrived, to vilify in the eyes of the lower classes all that is respectable in the ranks above them, and to undo every sacred tie by which society is holden together. In the crowded Meetings to which the unthinking multitude are invited, reform is the pretence, but sedition the object: discussion is professed, but all freedom of speech is put down by groans and clamour: the only thing permitted, is an obsequious listening to the railings and theories of some demagogue or his minions; and ingenuity chiefly displays itself in trying how much mischief may be done without overstepping the line which separates this new kind of audacity from actual treason.

If the loyal and the good have been less conspicuous and obtrusive than those whose conduct we thus deplore, yet they have not been inattentive observers; and their experience is well calculated to convince them that the times require a faithful expression of their principles, and a steady exertion of their influence. Thus may they reclaim many who for a while have been misled by the artifices of the designing, and we trust there will now, as in the best days of our history, be one powerful union, under the blessing of the Almighty, round the Altar, the Throne and the Laws, for the preservation of all that is dear to man.

[Presented by the Earl of Londonderry, K. G.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the borough and town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, feel ourselves compelled by circumstances which we most deeply lament to renew the expression of our attachment to His Majesty and His August Family.

We have beheld with sorrow the attempts of wicked and designing men to dissolve the alliance between the Throne and the People; we have beheld with indignation the wish to subvert our glorious Constitution; we have beheld with horror the design of persuading mankind to abandon their duty to their God.

Foreign enemies have never inspired us with fear; yet we contemplate with painful apprehension the portentous aspect of the present times; every species of evil is set in array against every species of good; the enemies of civil society are active and indefatigable; every law which can give value to social order, every virtue which can bless human life, is the object of their attack; they would conjure up in this kingdom that fiend of anarchy which recently laid Europe prostrate in blood and desolation; they would, by impiety and discontent, introduce infidelity and confusion. Atheism is in their heart, treason on their tongue, and the dagger of assassination in their hand; yet, we trust that the arm of the law will, in these dominions, ever be found strong enough to maintain the sacred rights entrusted to its care; and if the daring designs of the disaffected should be matured into a practical effort for their accomplishment, we feel a firm assurance that such will be the simultaneous exertion of His Majesty's loyal subjects as not only to frustrate the purposes of the rebellious, but to crush the formation of every future hope to destroy that Palladium of "The Rights of Man," which secures to each and all of us our property, our liberty, and our lives.

We humbly request your Royal Highness to accept the assurance of our firm devotion to your Royal Highness and our determination to defend to the utmost of our power that Constitution which our forefathers raised by their wisdom, and cemented by their blood, that we may transmit it as the most valuable birthright which we can bequeath to our posterity. To your Royal Highness's illustrious Family, the Inhabitants of this town are attached by motives of gratitude and of love; and when we see the spirit of loyalty rising as it does over the face of this island, we look forward with the strongest hopes that a more close union will augment our security and our happiness until the blessings of peace may return to the channels from which they were diverted by a long and expensive war, and the tide of prosperity again flow over this rejoicing land.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Duke of Cornwall

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Portreeve and principal Inhabitants of the borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Portreeve and principal Inhabitants of the borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall, beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our attachment to the Laws and Constitution of our Country, being fully sensible of the inestimable blessings the Inhabitants of this Island have enjoyed under them through the favours of an all-wise and overruling Providence. We cannot then behold but with feeling of abhorrence, the attempts made by wicked and impious men to bring the constituted authorities of the land into contempt by seditious publications, and to do away all sense of moral obligation and the belief of judgment to come, by impious and blasphemous effusions from a polluted press. And when we reflect that these were the very means used in a neighbouring Kingdom to produce anarchy, confusion and deeds of horror at which humanity revolts, we cannot but dread similar effects being produced in this Country from similar causes. We therefore assure your Royal Highness that we shall ever bear in mind the appellation of "faithful" given to this County for undiminished allegiance; faithful to her Sovereign, faithful to the Laws, and faithful to her God, and will by our example, and a vigorous and wholesome exercise of the existing laws, to the utmost of our power support the constituted authorities of these Realm, and prevent the diffusion of seditious, irreligious and blasphemous publications tending to poison the minds of the many and uninformed, to turn the blessings enjoyed by the nation into a curse, and the bright and pleasing hope of immortality and life into gloomy darkness and despair.

Given under the Common Seal of our Borough, this 10th day of November, 1819, and signed,

E. Modge, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Masters and Counsellors, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Totnes, in the County of Devon, and its Neighbourhood, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with expressions of warm attachment to your August Family, and of loyalty to that excellent Constitution, under which this happy country has so long flourished.

We, have observed with feelings of detestation and abhorrence, the daring attempts of visionary and malevolent projectors to turn from the paths of duty the minds of these humbler classes of society, who are incapable of detecting the fallacious arguments by which they are assailed, and who have been taught to suppose that their rights have been invaded, and interests disregarded, at the very moment, when they are experiencing the benefits of more equal Laws and more charitable provisions than any other country ever boasted or enjoyed.

We feel in common with our poorest fellow subjects, most anxious to maintain that privilege of petition, which is guaranteed to us in the Bill of Rights; but for the better security of that valuable privilege, we solemnly protest against those turbulent and factious assemblies, whose cry is "Annual Parliaments and Universal Suffrage," while their efforts are directed to undermine the foundations of justice and equity, together with the distinctions of rank and property to subvert the Altar and the Throne, and to introduce confusion, infidelity and licentiousness.

We do assure your Royal Highness, that no exertions shall be wanting on our part to promote in this Neighbourhood a firm adherence to the laws, and a due respect to those, who are entrusted with the execution of them, that we will prevent, as much as possible, the circulation of seditious and blasphemous publications, and that we will endeavour, both by precept and example, to insil into the minds of all around us, the conviction, that their own happiness and liberties, as well as the general prosperity of the Nation, depend on a peaceable and orderly submission to the established Laws and Government of the country

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Grimsby.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Great Grimsby, humbly venture to express to your Royal Highness, at this crisis of turbulent disaffection, our unshaken attachment to your Royal Highness's person and Government, and to the Laws and Constitution of our country.

We wish also distinctly to assure your Royal Highness of our utter detestation of the blasphemous and seditious doctrines diligently circulated by evil minded persons, who no longer professing to confine themselves to any limited objects; at length openly propose an entire subversion of those Institutions under which we and our forefathers have enjoyed the blessings of the christian dispensation, and that moderated liberty which is most consistent with the general good, and most secure of its own continuance

Of that liberty, and of the rights and privileges which compose and support it, however they may be occasionally abused by desperate incendiaries, we feel that it becomes us to be ever jealous, but while we deeply lament in common we are persuaded with your Royal Highness, the recent distressing occurrences at Manchester, we at the same time confidently anticipate such an explanation by your Royal Highness's Ministers, when Parliament shall assemble, as shall not only allay the irritation of the public mind, but fully justify the conduct of the Magistrates and Military on that occasion, and the Royal approbation which has been awarded them.

The confidence which we thus express, is inspired by that, which we ever entertain in the patriotic sentiments of your Royal Highness, which appear to have dictated a prompt resort to the sense of Parliament and afford us an assurance, that when it shall assemble, your Royal Highness, actuated equally by firmness and moderation will sanction all such salutary and Constitutional measures, as may seem best calculated to defeat the machinations of those, who would deprive us of our religious faith, and of that glorious Constitution, which, together form our dearest inheritance and have rendered the people of this country the happiest and most enviable on the earth.

In fine, we solemnly pledge ourselves, individually and collectively to do all, that may depend on our most strenuous exertions to support your Royal Highness at this important juncture.

Signed, at the request of the Meeting, Great Grimsby, 20th November 1819.

James Goulton, Mayor.

[Presented by J. Tennyson, Esq. M. P.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Truro, and its neighbourhood, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, at this eventful period, with the sincerest professions of unshaken attachment to your illustrious House.

We contemplate, with feelings of mixed disgust and horror, the extensive dissemination, throughout the realm, of blasphemous publications, teeming with doctrines alike subversive of social order and domestic happiness, and threatening, unless speedily checked, to involve our country in one wide sea of rapine and of blood.

We beg leave to declare to your Royal Highness our firm determination to uphold, to the utmost of our power, your Royal Authority, and strenuously to defend our invaluable Constitution both in Church and State; a Constitution at once the safeguard of the Throne, and the Palladium of the liberties of the people.

Signed at the request, and on behalf, of the Meeting. J. F. Bennallack, Mayor.

[Presented by Lord Fitzroy Somerset and W. E. Tomline, Esq.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Justice, Recorder Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough Town and Neighbourhood of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with a declaration of our sentiments of, loyalty to our Sovereign, and of attachment to the Laws, Religion, and Constitution of our Country.

We have heard with deep concern of the daring and persevering efforts of wicked and misguided men, to bring into utter contempt the laws and constituted authorities of the State, to alienate the minds of the people from their King and Country, and to destroy the first principles of social order amongst us. And it excites our alarm and indignation, that doctrines at once subversive of our matchless Constitution, and of our most holy Religion, are fearlessly and impiously professed, and widely and dangerously disseminated.

And we have further deeply to deplore, that for the basest of purposes, the liberty of the press, and the right of petitioning, those invaluable privileges and safeguards of our liberties, should have been perverted to a degree of licentiousness unexampled in our history.

We humbly beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we are resolved to the utmost of our power, to defend our unrivalled Constitution and the Christian religion, against the attacks of desperate and unprincipled men; at the same time, that we rely with confidence on the measures that shall be taken by your Royal Highness's Ministers, and by the two Houses of Parliament, when they are assembled, to defeat the machinations of our domestic, as they have successfully resisted the arms of our foreign enemies.

[Presented by Lord Rolle.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, assembled at a County Meeting convened by the High Sheriff, and held at the Shire Hall, in the town of Llandilo, in the said County, on Friday the 5th day of November 1819.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and in duty to ourselves and the country at this momentous crisis, to express our principles of firm and ardent attachment to the Constitution of these realms, and of devoted and unshaken loyalty to his Majesty's person and Government.

Much as we value the acknowledged right of the People to meet and Petition, and freely to discuss the public measures, yet, we cannot help deprecating the assembling together of such numerous and organized bodies, for the avowed purpose of petitioning for reform, but too liable to be excited to the extreme of irritation and discontent, by the inflammatory harangues of delegates and emissaries from the most dangerous and designing secret societies.

Happy under the revered Constitution which has for so many years protected our properties, our liberties, and lives, we cannot, as friends to our country and good order, view with indifference the lowest of the people arrogate to themselves the power of reforming the laws, and the right of determining the measure of their submission to them.

At the same time we humbly observe, that the legal petitions of the people for the redress of real grievances, should not be confounded with acts of sedition, and that we consider the privilege of petitioning the Crown, as secured to the subject by the Bill of Rights, and the Constitution of this country.

It is therefore with peculiar satisfaction, that we find your Royal Highness has convened Parliament at an early period, and without expressing our opinions upon the late occurrence at Manchester, (which we most deeply deplore) as not wishing to prejudge a question so delicate and important as the conduct of the Magistrates of that place, we wait with deference in expectation that the wisdom of Parliament will see justice done to all parties, and those laws duly executed which are equally binding on the Magistrate who administers, and on the subject who obeys them.

Convinced of the criminal and mischievous designs of those who, under the specious pretext of reform, are industriously circulating blasphemous and seditious publications, with a view of poisoning the minds of the unwary, and of detaching them from their duty to God and their allegiance to their Sovereign; we feel it incumbent on us to repeat our firm attachment to the Constitution, and our determination to enforce to the utmost of our power, the due execution of the laws against all, who by their writings or otherwise, shall endanger the public tranquillity of these realms.

[Transmitted by D. H. Pugh, Esq. the High Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishops of the Scotch Episcopal Church, beg leave, with all humility and reverence, to approach the throne, and to express, as well in the name of the clergy and people of our communion, as in our own, the utmost abhorrence of those impious and seditious principles, which are at present so industriously disseminated through the British Empire.

Ill would it become the governors of our church, which has long been noted for her attachment to those principles, civil and ecclesiastical, by which the primitive Christians were distinguished, to sit silent when the very foundations of our religion are sapped, and the constituted authorities of the State reviled. From the paucity of our numbers, we cannot indeed do much to strengthen the hands of Government in stemming that torrent of atheism and anarchy which threatens to overwhelm the nation in one common ruin; but we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that no class of his Majesty's subjects can be more ready to do or suffer whatever may be found necessary for so salutary a purpose.

In the mean time, that He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree judgment, will support your

Royal Highness in that arduous struggle, which you have now to maintain, and bring under due subjection to the laws, all the enemies of social order and true religion, is the earnest and daily prayer of,

May it please your Royal Highness, his Majesty's and your Royal Highness's most dutiful subjects and servants,

George Gleig, Premier Bishop; Alexander Jolly, Bishop; Daniel Sandford, Bishop; Patrick Torry, Bishop; W. Skinner, Bishop; David Low, Bishop.

Stirling, November 15, 1819.

[Transmitted by the Premier Bishop, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Blackburn, in the County of Lancaster, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of unfeigned regret, for the unhappy and groundless Disturbances which now prevail in this part of the kingdom.

We behold with indignation the delusions which have prevailed on the minds of great multitudes among the lower orders of our Countrymen, by which their better natures have been wholly perverted and misled, through the instrumentality of artful and wicked men, from the duty which they owe to God, the King, and the Laws of the Land.

We regret that a licentious and profligate press, the principal cause of these alarming evils, has so long been permitted, almost with impunity, to disseminate political and religious poisons at once so quick in their operation, and so permanent and abiding in their effects, upon the moral and religious Constitution of those who have unhappily imbibed them. We do most sincerely and deeply lament the temporary stagnation, which, from causes wholly unconnected with the representation of the country in the Common House of Parliament, has confessedly taken place in the Trade and Manufactures of this country, but we believe and know the distresses which that stagnation has occasioned, to be greatly and mischievously exaggerated, for the purpose of exciting sedition, while we acknowledge with gratitude to Providence, that these evils have been, in a great degree, counteracted by a most plentiful harvest, and by an unusual cheapness and abundance of all the necessaries of life.

In the operation of those diabolical principles, by which the present discontents, with all their dreaded consequences, have been occasioned, we clearly discern the spirit of revived jacobinism, a principle which by the united operation of irreligion and rebellion, tends to dissolve all the relations of civilized life, to the extinction of all the feelings of social order, to the decomposition of all the ties of humanity, and in its progress would degrade, as it has once already degraded, the best informed, and most highly refined portion of the human race, into bands of ruffians and savages. What then must be its effects, when united, as at present, with every mode of inflammatory exaggeration and falsehood, on natures undisciplined and ferocious, on the half-instructed, half-reasoning and self-confident understandings of artizans and mechanics, confessedly suffering, to a certain extent, under privations and disappointments.

These are the evils which we dread, as hastily advancing on this once happy country, but, with all which we feel, and all which we apprehend, we are fully aware, that it is not for us to prescribe remedies even for evils, in the operation of which, ourselves are so deeply involved; nevertheless we do presume, with the most profound respect for every branch of the legislature, to implore, as they value the interests, the virtue, or the happiness of this or of succeeding generations, that the measures and enactments, by which they purpose to counteract principles and practices so destructive, may be directed by promptitude and vigour, that extinct statutes, were obviously needful, may be re-enacted, that existing ones, may be revised and adapted to exigences, and that powers may be conferred on those who are entrusted to execute the laws adequate to the novel evils which they have to encounter, and to the difficult and arduous duties which they have to discharge.

For ourselves, we frankly declare, that in co-operating with every legal exertion of authority to this effect, we will shrink from no perils, we will decline no expence, if, by so doing, ourselves, our country, and our posterity, can be protected from the mischief and desolation threatened by an illiterate and audacious rabble, on the point of employing a formidable, though ill directed force, to overturn all that we have been taught to hold dear, all that we have been wont to respect as venerable; a rabble composed at once of the meanest and most mischievous elements, of all that is either cowardly or cruel, fraudulent or rapacious in an overcharged and corrupted population.

With the best opportunities of information from actual residence in a district, so circumstanced, these are our sentiments on this alarming subject, qualified, however, to a very considerable extent, by a full assurance, that in these districts, numbers alone (armed numbers indeed) are formidable, but that with a very few exceptions, all the powerful weight of property, all the generous feelings of rank, education and profession, are zealously devoted to the support of our existing Constitution, in Church and State.

Whitehall, November 26, 1819.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Major-General Sir John Malcolm, of the East India Company's Army, and Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the said Most Honourable Military Order.

And His Royal Highness hath been further graciously pleased to nominate and appoint the under-mentioned Officers, of the East India Company's Service, and Companions of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to be Knights Commanders of the said Most Honourable Military Order, viz.

Major-General Thomas Munro.

Major-General William Toone.

Major-General John Doveton.

Carlton-House, November 26, 1819.

Ceremonial of the Investiture of Rear-Admiral Sir George Eyre, and of Major-Generals Sir Benjamin D'Urban, Sir George-Ridout Bingham, the Honourable Sir Charles-James Greville, and Sir Andrew-Francis Barnard, Knights Commanders of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, with the Star of the Second Class of the Order.

By command of the Prince Regent, Rear Admiral Sir George Eyre was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing, upon a crimson velvet cushion, the star, appropriated to the second class of the Order.

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of York and of Albany, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the Star of a Knight Commander, presented it to the Prince Regent, who was graciously pleased to invest Sir George Eyre with the same.

The Rear-Admiral having had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, retired.

Major-Generals Sir Benjamin D'Urban, Sir George-Ridout Bingham, the Honourable Sir Charles-James Greville, and Sir Andrew-Francis Barnard were then severally introduced, and received from His Royal Highness the Prince Regent the Star of a Knight Commander with the same ceremonies.

Carlton-House, November 26, 1819.

This day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to invest Vice-Admiral Sir Manley Dixon and Major-General Sir Thomas Munro, with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Prince Regent, Vice-Admiral Sir Manley Dixon was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to the Prince Regent, by Sir William Keppel, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, and Sir Manley Dixon, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand.

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of York and of Albany, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented them to the Prince Regent, who was pleased to invest Sir Manley Dixon with the same.

The Vice-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, and having received from His Royal Highness the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

Major-General Sir Thomas Munro was then introduced, knighted, and invested with the same ceremonies.

COFFEE ESTATE FOR SALE.

By virtue of two several appointments of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. bearing date the 18th and 20th of August 1819, on the matter of certain petition presented to the Honourable the Court aforesaid, by Charles Kyte, Trustee of Plantation Kortberaad, the property of the late J. J. De Mey, Esq. of this Colony, deceased, the minors H. A. Krugen and C. S. J. Mey, children of his former wife, Henrietta Buse, and the minors E. B. De Mey and F. D. De Mey, children by his late wife, Elizabeth Bartlett Bussell.

The undersigned, Trustee aforesaid, will sell at public vendue, on Friday the 18th day of February 1820, on the premises, the aforesaid Coffee Plantation Kortberaad, cum annexis, together with the slaves thereunto attached, containing 1,000 acres more or less; the cultivation consists of 80,000 bearing coffee trees, and 50 acres in plantains and ground provisions; the remainder uncultivated, being most excellent land for either coffee, canes, or provisions.

This plantation is most eligibly situated on the east bank of the River Berbice, between the Sugar Plantation, Enfield, and Coffee Plantation, Deutchem, about seven miles distant from New Amsterdam, to which there is an excellent road the whole way, with the advantage of water carriage, for the produce and stores, and is in every respect well adapted for the cultivation of canes, and with the attention of gentlemen speculating, who have the means of extending the cultivation either as a coffee or sugar estate.

The buildings consist of a large coffee logie, built of the best materials, 120 feet long, 28 broad, with 12 feet galleries on each side, a mill-house, washing cistern, tiled grogeries, for drying and other apparatus for the manufacture of coffee, with hospital, negro-houses, &c. &c.

The logie, mill-house, &c. might at a small expence be converted into buildings for the manufacture of sugar.

The negroes are 126 in number, viz.; 53 men, 29 women, 23 boys, 21 girls, and are an improving gang.

Terms of payment as follow, in three equal instalments of 12, 18, and 24 months from the day of sale, with interest, at the rate of 6 per Cent. per annum on the capital due at the payment of each instalment.

Further particulars may be known on application to the subscriber.

CHARLES KYTE,

New Amsterdam, Berbice, October 20, 1819.
